

Das Bundesministerium lädt ein

Webinar zur sozialen Dimension in der Hochschulbildung

Integrativer Zugang und breite Teilhabe in Zeiten von Covid-19

Donnerstag, 08. Oktober 2020
ZOOM webinar, 14:30 – 16:30

Programm:

14:30 Uhr Heribert Wulz, stv. Sektionschef, BMBWF Begrüßung, Einleitung

14:35 Uhr Jamil Salmi Covid-19 and equity; what are the main challenges?

global tertiary education expert, areas of expertise:

- Policy guidance on system-wide tertiary education reforms, including vision for the future and national development strategies, excellence initiatives, system-wide governance, financial sustainability, quality assurance, institutional differentiation, system articulation, equity promotion strategies.
- Advice on benchmarking, strategic planning and capacity building for establishing a world-class university or improving any type of tertiary education institution, including change management, resource mobilization and diversification, quality assurance, internationalization strategy, university-industry linkages, and equity promotion.
- Evaluation of national higher education systems and reforms
- Evaluation of donor programs in support of higher education capacity building in developing countries.
- Organization and delivery of leadership and strategic planning training for Ministry of Higher Education officials, university leaders, and leaders of other tertiary education institutions (non-university institutions, student loan agencies, etc.).

Works in English, French and Spanish.

15:15 Q&A session mit keynote speaker, Jamil Salmi

16:00 Möglichkeit zum Austausch über Aktivitäten zur sozialen
Dimension im Hochschulbereich

Es ist keine Anmeldung notwendig, wir freuen uns auf Ihre Teilnahme!

